

On Saturday night, October 21, Phi Kappa held its first informal dance, in honor of the pledges at the Champaign Country Club. Thanks to the efforts of Brother Smith, who arranged the dance, every detail was carefully attended to and the dance was conceded to be the best in our history. A supper was served after the dance. Brothers Harris, Kennedy, and Ferguson were among the chaperons.