

made a great success of the annual post-exam jubilee, which increased the bank account of the University Y. M. C. A. by several hundred dollars.

Appointment of a judge for the beauty section of the Illio is a source of worry for the campus beauties at the present time. Brother Thurman has not yet made public his choice for this important position.

Interfraternity bowling has turned out more favorably than expected and Phi Kappa is still at the head of her division. Prospects of retaining the big silver pin seem brighter with each trip to the bowling alleys.

Intramural basketball teams have been raising their averages at the expense of our team since sickness broke up our team. The recall of Brother Anderson to freshman-varsity basketball was also an important cause of our slump.

The Educational Committee of the Illinois State Legislature recently paid its annual visit to the University and was honored by a review of the entire brigade. The University is trying to get a larger appropriation for the next two years, and we hope that Illinois' famous band made a good enough impression to loosen the strings of the governmental purse.

The building plan of the University is taking shape with the advancement of work on the new Agriculture building and the setting up of steel on the new stadium.

Interscholastic looks even more promising than usual this year with Wisconsin and Notre Dame on the baseball schedule, and Wisconsin furnishing the opposition on the track. The time is May 18 and 19, and Phi Kappa looks forward to a large delegation of Brothers to help us enjoy the week-end.
