

With this writing, we are now looking forward to another big week-end on October 26—our homecoming game with Notre Dame. We are expecting a large host of loyal alumni to take over. They will be able to try out the new beds, while the seniors and juniors run for space on the davenports, and the sophs and frosh tussle for space on the floor and on the top of the pool table.

LELAND WILLIAM HAGMAN.