

‡ The Phi Kappa Chapter now sports a new addition in the frontroom—small, but impressive. Come to think of it, it is not too small at that. The addition is the Sigma Chi Scholarship Trophy, which is awarded each semester to the house that shows the most improvement. The trophy towers over both our President and Scholarship Chairman. In addition to the trophy, the Infraternity Council has also awarded the Chapter two plaques in honor of our progress. Now you know what we have been doing this semester . . . Studying!

Between our bouts with the books, we managed to enter a few IM sports, namely volleyball and basketball. One of our two co-rec volleyball teams was league champ, which was quite an honor. The other team copped second in its league. The basketball team reached the finals this year, but wasn't able to capitalize upon the opportunity. It seems that aquatic sports were not entirely forgotten either as Postulant Walt Weaver, '63, swam off with two trophies during the IM swimming meet.

This fall saw a short visit from U. S. Senator Hugh Scott, Pennsylvania, a Brother Phi Zeta, who recently wrote an article for the Saturday Evening Post. On his tour of the country, he stopped and chatted with a few of the Brothers. It just shows once more that "Once an Alpha Chi, always an Alpha Chi." Speaking of our alums, the Phi Kappa Chapter will host our alums on March 4, 1961, for the Illinois-Purdue game, after which there will be a short business meeting.

Since the Illinois Crows are just back from a twelve-day semester break, we really haven't started the social whirl yet, but we have several exchanges planned—ice skating, square dancing, and several other gems.

Well, I'm afraid it's time to get back to my
