

Now that everyone has finally departed and the confab broken up by the protests of a few studious souls, I can reflect back on a few things that happened here since the beginning of school. There was the rushing period, the report of Brother Ireland on the convention, the non-conference football games, the visit of Brother Griesser, a blind date at the Alpha Chi Omega House, and last month's house bills and—

The old pipe is cold now and the fire is dying down. Here enters Brother Gallentine so it must be time to retire, which we do, after appending the list of the Chapter membership as requested:

Seniors.—Paul Berger Geiger, John Adelbert Morse, Clifford Casey Ireland, Charles Runyan Leaverton, Warren D. Marshall, Thomas C. McKee, Robert Morgan Ochsenschlager, Clark F. Palmer, Victor Adams Sholis, Charles F. Wade.

Juniors.—Alfred W. Borg, Jr., William M. Feldman, Roy N. Green, Joseph A. Gallentine, Otto K. Huenergardt, Richard C. Horton, Laurence A. Hubbard, Philip King Lantz, Raymond Leeper, E. Wayne Morgan, Alvin S. Wick, Walter Owen Edwards, Jr.

Sophomores.—Edward L. Barker, Robert E. Hoffman, Joseph G. Holty, John J. Miller, Jr., John F. Pilgrim, Frederick Arnold Reisner, William H. Stewart, John Griffith Symons.

Freshmen (Postulants).—John R. Banker, William Paul Buchanan, Norbert John Barlage, Wilbur W. Bingamon, Robert A. Gopel, Donald Jackson, Roger S. Leesley, Richard F. Locke, Jr., Clarence Jerome Nelson, Thomas J. Newbill, Jr., George O'Connell, John M. Peffers, Carl R. Rydquist, Edward Brown, John H. Rothgeb, Edward W. McGrade, Jr., Harry H. Mongreig, Alan George Arison.