

Al Arison, '34; Bill Davis, '33; Bill Feldman, '32, and Rog Leesley, '34, have spent a good deal of their spare time at the new $350,000 indoor ice-skating rink, built by the university athletic association. Paul Buchanan, '34, has organized a ten-piece band which played for the first time December 19.

November 9, Dick Rydquist, '34; Bill Bingaman, '34, and Dick Locke, '32, were initiated. Dr. Fred W. Tanner, head of the Department of Bacteriology, and Joseph Vaile, '28, now on the faculty, were present.

THE old pool room has been cleaned out by House Manager Arnie Reisner, '33, and his crew of freshmen, making it an ideal place to play ping-pong. Pokey Pilgrim, '33, created enough interest among the fellows in the sport to collect a fund with which a table, net, paddles and balls were bought. Several tournaments have been run off.

Johnny Miller, '33, has become unofficial photographer for the Chapter. Every time The Phi Kappa News wants a picture Johnny is called to the job. John Sommerville, '33, has been initiated into Gargoyle, an honorary architectural fraternity. Bob Gopel '34, and Jerry Nelson, '34, were initiated into Alpha Alpha Alpha, pre-legal fraternity, December 17. Buzz Marshall amuses himself and the rest of the Brothers by drawing charcoal sketches of such prominent men as John Francis Pilgrim and John Jacob Miller.

As is customary, several fellows traveled to Columbus to visit Phi Pi at Ohio State when Illinois played there November 21. Eddie McGrade, '34, drove his Franklin carriage over. Bob Hoffman, '33, and Joe Holty, '33, helped him along. Bob Gopel drove Pokey Pilgrim, Dick Locke, King Lantz, Ray Leeper, '32, and Gene Schooley.

We can't seem to keep pets around here. After Don Jackson, '34, lost his police pup, Bill Stewart brought a little kitten home. It lasted about three days and then—well roommates won't stand for everything.
