

Bob Gopel, who placed fourth in the interclass fencing tournament last fall, entered the intramural fencing tournament. Bill Bingaman, who won a middleweight boxing championship in high school, is striving for the intramural middleweight boxing championship.

A SILVER loving cup two feet tall was presented to the Chapter last fall in memory of George F. Moulton, '21, who died from injuries received playing football here. On the base of the cup are four silver plates on which will be engraved each semester the name of the Brother in the Chapter who makes the highest grades and the one who has the greatest increase in grades. For the semester ending in January the name of John Sommerville, who made an average of 4.82 out of a possible 5, and that of John Symons, who raised his semester average from 2.82 to 3.69, will go on the cup.

The House this year has had a fairly well-rounded assortment of activity men. Don Jackson is well on his way toward making a letter in track. He is competing in both the broad jump and the low hurdles. Earl Buchanan already has cinched his numerals in wrestling by beating all his competitors in the 118-pound class. Jerry Nelson is working for a junior track manager job.

Gene Schooley is finishing his fourth year on The Daily Illini as associate sports editor. Charlie Logan is holding down the city editor's job on the same paper. Johnny Symons is circulation manager of the campus humor magazine, The Siren. Ray Leeper, as member of the Illinois Union board of directors and Bill Stewart, a Union Cabinet member, help direct the activities and policies of student organization. Buck Buchanan and his band of eleven, including John Sommerville, violinist, and Gordon Ryan, pianist, is coming to the fore of campus bands.

Gordon Ryan, the composer of the popular song hit, "Yours and Mine," and George Austin, valedictorian of his
