

‡ OUR own depression is a thing of the past. This year the Chapter has a better spirit and a brighter outlook than it has had in years. This is what our alumni have been telling us and we feel the same way ourselves.

This Fall we put our House in excellent condition. The old flagstone puddle-porch was cemented together this Summer and now sheds water like a duck's back. Inside the House all the study rooms were kalsomined, floors stained and waxed and otherwise made to shine. We got several new pieces of furniture. The latest idea in efficient study equipment seems to be radios as there are now five in the House as well as our electric victrola.

The Chapter is particularly proud of the thirteen Postulants pledged this Fall. Much of the credit belongs to Bob Gopel, rushing chairman. The new men are doing well in their studies so far and several have already entered activities down here.

Deneen Fisher, '34, is in training for the varsity wrestling team. Mike Galland, '36, is out for anything in track from the half mile to cross-country and recently made a three-mile race in 15:56. Warren Hoefer, '36, is on the freshman varsity tennis squad. Ted Hoffman, '36, is taking architecture which explains why he isn't out for anything else. John Kuney, '36, is planning to go out for the football manager-ship. Dave Mathew, '35, spends his time in the college of engineering. Harold Miller, '36, is out for the gym team and for a cheer-leading job. Arnie Pottieger, '36, has already begun reporting for The Daily Illini. Dick Shelton, '36, is leading his own seven-piece band and it's a whiz, too. Lee Smith, '34, has just been pledged Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization, and is an officer in the infantry unit of the R. O. T. C.

Steve Steib, '36, was an all-state halfback a year ago and was on the first freshman team last Fall. Myron Wormley, '36, is working on the
