University of Illinois

¶ AFTER the excitement of rushing, home-coming dads' day, football, the pledge dance, a political campaign, eight weeks' grades and Christmas vacation we've settled down to study with only a few basketball games and term papers to bother us.

In addition to good rushing of Ted Hoffman, '36, and Bob Gopel, '34, another factor was the good work of Casse Ireland, Chuck Logan, Dick Horton and Phil Turner. All these Graduates came to the House to help rush.

Our pledge dance was held October 28. The music was furnished by Dick Shelton's orchestra. Brother Shelton is now playing at Bradley Hall.

Arnold Potteiger, '36, was the only person who was able to accept Phi Pi's invitation to attend
