

Phi Kappa

University of Illinois

¶ THE excitement of rushing and the beginning of the school year are long since over, and Phi Kappa has settled down to the routine of school work, punctuated here and there by social activities.

Chief among these latter was the pledge dance, held October 19, and voted a smashing success by all present. The time-honored Illinois custom of an exchange dinner with a sorority house was also observed, the victims this time being the Delta Gammas.
