♀ AFTER A WEEK of hectic house-cleaning by the Brothers, who were required to be in Champaign by September 9, the annual whirl of rush week began. Francis Bachman, rushing chairman, had been busy most of the summer signing up rushees. Quite a respectable number showed up for rush week.

Krohn '37, Aurora; Frank W. Linder '40, Washington; Alex E. McCormack '39, Elgin; David Morris '40; Daniel J. Nacht '39, Chicago; Charles L. Norton '40, Neponset; John S. Roane '40, Carlyle; Bob E. Sells '38, Bloomington; Arthur B. Stark '37, Sycamore; Wells M. Tanner '40, Urbana; George E. Troll '40, Aurora; Harold C. Weingartner '39, Aurora.

Tanner and brother of Fred, Jr., both Alpha Chi Rho's.

If he can tear himself away from his studies long enough to put his plans into effect, it looks like a gala year. Gail Mischlich, intramural manager, is just as full of plans for a successful season in interfraternity athletics.

The prospects look especially bright this year; there is an abundance of excellent material, both for baseball and basketball. Several also entered
