

the golf, tennis, and ping-pong tournaments. We'll be disappointed if there isn't at least one "first place" cup to put in the trophy room, to keep company with the convention attendance cup, won this year by Phi Kappa. In the track competition we are relying on Byron Dressler, who by this own admission is probably the greatest miler in the state. Get him to tell you the story of how he ran the mile in 4:08—with sore feet and shin-splints!

For the Ohio State game, November 14, we expect a big turnout of the Brothers of Phi Pi. For Homecoming, of course, the "alums" will be down. To those Phi Kappa graduates who haven't been coming to the Homecoming game, make a special effort this year to revisit your old stamping grounds. It'll be the high spot of the year—we can promise that!
