

from Phi Kappa to enter the exclusive ranks of the newly-weds. Johnny was married to Helen Parks (another loyal Illini) at Belleville, Illinois, on December 7.

An event that was certainly enjoyed was our annual Christmas formal on last December 7. Congratulations go to our social chairmen, Bob Critton '41, and Charles Perkins '42, who came through in great style with snappy decorations and a fine orchestra.

We are now preparing to hold initiation ceremonies on the latter part of this month. We plan to initiate about twelve Postulants.

It seems that snow has its good and bad points. At the time of writing we had plenty of it. That was good, but then it happened. A band of about two hundred college men came down the street and used our house as one of its many targets; outcome—seven broken windowpanes and three of them in my room. That wouldn't have been so bad, but one of the snowballs hit my radio. Now I have to give it a mighty whack every time I want to hear some music.
