

Wissel, '45, is a sophomore hockey manager and Tom Jack, '44, is a junior baseball manager as well as being a member of SACHEM, junior activity honorary. Bill Wright and Roy Smith, both '45's, and Paul Stavenger, '46, are actively engaged in Star Course while Bob Kiester, '43, is vice-president and quartermaster for the concert band. Fred Moore, '44, is head cheerleader for all the baseball games. . . . (By the way, that was Fred out there leading the campus cheers for the football team also.) Maurice Graves, '44½, is doing Y. M. C. A. work while Ivan Richardson and Richard Kohler, both '43's, are on the Casson Club Committees. Phil Rose, '45, was elected during the past semester to president of Star and Scroll, sophomore activity honorary while Oakley Dorion, '43, is senior advisor to the same organization. Warren Lutz, Wayne Given, and Vernon Guyn, are all out for the Illini freshman basketball squad. Needless to say, the University's R. O. T. C. Advanced Corps is a popular extra-curricular activity this year. Future officers in the House include: Ivan Richardson, '43, Richard Kohler, '43, Earl Fox, '44, Milton Sheffield, '43, Louis Scheidenhelm, '43, Stan Hanssen, '44, and Fred Moore, '44.

On October 16 and 17 Phi Kappa held its annual pledge dance and hay ride, respectively. This marked the beginning of the social functions for the House this year. Everyone had an exceptionally good time and was glad to see that several of the local alumni were able to attend the dance. On December 5, we staged our annual winter formal which was a memorable occasion to all who attended, thanks to the able supervision of Dick Kohler, '43, our social chairman for the year. Dick was assisted by Johnnie Persohn,
