

ILLINOIS

KENT G. DAVIS '30 was raised to the rank of lieutenant commander in the U. S. N. R. on July 1, 1943. He is skipper of a Coronado Flying Boat plying between the west coast and Honolulu carrying cargo and passengers in the Naval Air Transport Service. His address is 1110 Monterey Avenue, Berkeley 6, California.

LIEUT. CASEY IRELAND '31 entered the Army as a private last October, went through basic training at Camp Wheeler, became a corporal, shipped to O. C. S. in February, and became a second lieutenant in May. Was assigned as an instructor in the publications section of the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia. Casey says all this caused him to lose thirty pounds.

R. F. LOCKE, JR., '32 is a lieutenant-colonel in the Quartermaster Section, Allied Force Headquarters, somewhere overseas. AL WHARFIELD '30 and CY PETERMAN, Phi Omicron '22, are stationed not far from Dick, as he sees them frequently.

CARL HJALMAR MAYER '43 is an aviation student in the Air Corps. He began active duty in February, 1943, at San Antonio, Texas. He underwent training at Janesboro College and was in the "A" flight which finished in six weeks. He had the honorary title of sergeant and acted as camp bugler. He expects to receive additional training at some other point in Texas.