

University of Illinois

The house is empty due to the withdrawal of the ASTP students. There is no danger of financial trouble, for the Building Association is able to carry on for a long while without a tenant.