

Illinois

The Chapter has been reactivated with five veteran members. The University approves of reopening Chapters, but will not allow pledging unless the University has approved the reactivation plan. Complete details of the reactivation will be printed in the next issue.