

♁ THE FULL WEIGHT of the housing problem that has confronted the entire university, has been felt by Phi Kappa. Brothers returning from the armed forces have filled all the available space and unless we hold pledging to a small scale, or just pledge men who are willing to live outside the chapter, we will have to defer pledging to a later date.

Cigar smokers at Phi Kappa were in their glory this past semester when four brothers hung their hardware. Last Valentine's day, brother Howard Wissell married the former Mae Domanski. On June 15, brother John Smithson exchanged vows with his Gloria.

Little Dwight Humphrey, the smallest man in the house, wears a large block "I" for his participation in Big Ten basketball. Robert Horton has been active in Inter-Fraternity Council. William Wright and James Hogan are junior managers of Star Course. Howard Wissell was sports editor for the Illini and manager of the swimming team. The fleet-footed pledge class added the trophy
