

PHI KAPPA recently sent a delegation of eight Brothers to the Alpha Phi Chapter at Purdue University. The delegation enjoyed its visit in spite of the defeat of the Illini at the Purdue-Illinois homecoming football game. Plans are in the making for a large get-together of the two chapters in the near future.

Our twenty-four postulants were in their glory on October 24, when they saw the thirty-five resident Brothers do the necessary work for their pledge dance. The dance committee consisted of Dale LeBaron, Carl Dietz, Trent Knepper, and Jim Reedy.

Postulants pledged this fall are: J. A. Andersen, Western Springs, Ill.; J. Anderson, Champaign, Ill.; A. L. Ball, Libertyville, Ill.; R. Bachman, Putnam, Ill.; R. W. Brandt, Moline, Ill.; B. S. Beckman, Moline, Ill.; R. E. Campbell, Canton, Ill.; P. M. Deeley, Maywood, Ill.; A. H. Franson, Riverside, Ill.; J. C. Hall, Yorkville, Ill.; G. C. Hellwig, Maywood, Ill.; A. H. Jacobson, LaGrange, Ill.; R. R. Loeffgren, Skokie, Ill.; H. W. Linder, Washington, Ill.; R. L. Peterson, Chicago, Ill.; J. F. Randall, Aurora, Ill.; R. W. Smith, LaGrange, Ill.; R. H. Schmidt, Riverside, Ill.; S. A. Skidmore, LaGrange, Ill.; and F. R. Sebek, Berwyn, Ill.

The following men were initiated on September 28: E. F. Bauer of Aurora, Ill.; W. L. Broom of Effingham, Ill.; R. A. Harding of Maywood, Ill.; and R. G. Miller of Yorkville, Ill.

Resident Brothers are still rehashing experiences and ideas gathered at the Alpha Chi Rho National Convention held in Philadelphia. Phi Kappa Brothers who attended the convention are: Bob Horton, '47, Dick Johnson, '48, Howie Norris, '39, Jim Reedy, '48, Frank Schunk, '29, Paul Stavenger, '47, Wayne Watson, '47, and Bill Wright, '48. An invitation was extended to the National Office to hold next year's convention at the Phi Kappa Chapter.

The graduate seniors and their schools are as follows: Carroll Brown, Commerce; Dean Ecke, Zoology; Earl Fox, Physical Education; Morrie Graves, Liberal Arts; Bob Horton, Pre-medical; Fred Ilseman, Commerce; Alex McCornack, Mechanical Engineering; Wally Miller, Civil Engineering; Dick Perkins, Commerce; Paul Stavenger, Chemical Engineering; Wayne Watson, Agricultural Economics; Woody Yonts, Agricultural Economics; and Jim Frauenhoff, Masters in Commerce.

Six Phi Kappa men slipped off the deep end this summer. Those donning the ball and chain are: Carroll Brown and Peggy McPherson of Columbia, S. C.; Jim Frauenhoff and Gloria Matthews of Aurora; Loren Miller and Lila Willems of Minonk; Morrie Graves and Marie Ostrom of
