

was in the house. Mrs. John Painter was elected secretary. The mothers also made a considerable and much appreciated cash gift to the chapter.

Curly Walden has been in local residence for some time, refreshing us on the rituals, carrying on the inevitable rat-race, and again reminding us that he is one of our best links with the traditions of the fraternity as well as with the other chapters. Curly has also been doing much work with the Convention Committee, and the plans for September's big affair are shaping up smoothly.

QUIGG LEWIS