Champaign, Illinois—Jan. 23—(Special)

⌘ AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES reported here today that an unusually large quantity of arsenic (no lace attached) has been purchased by the commissary department of the Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity. It is feared that the occupants of the spacious ivy-walled mansion at 311 E. Armory may be in grave . . . danger. However, Fred (Red) Burner, dean of students, said there is nothing to be afraid of. Mr. Burner commented that such was not an unusual occurrence during the week of final examinations for it is a time when many students choose to make it their final finals." Up to now, there have been no reports of such choices.

Clint Lewis '52, president of the Chapter, confided that everything possible was being done to console those "maniac-depressives" (Brother Lewis is a psychology minor) who are afraid of "flunking out" and going to the army. At the present time, the only possible escape from being drafted into the Ky Ro, the British bull of Phi Kappa, mournfully sits out the exam period.
