

leadership of Dick Luettich '56, Tom Richardson '56, and Dean Anderson '55, the Brothers and postulants are busily engaged in practicing for a winning show. In addition, Chuck Dunn '54, is grooming the vocal cords of the boys in preparation for Sachem Sing, where we compete with other fraternities for top honors.

Amid all the confusion came Engineering Open House. Engineering classes were called off (hooray!) and the slide-rule boys were kept busy answering questions about "that junk on North Campus."

The crowning of the National Sweetheart at Purdue called forth fifteen of the members to represent Phi Kappa at the formal dance, and some of these lingered for the entire weekend.

With a final tear for the Brothers who took the fatal step into matrimony—"Rocky" Ryan and Paul Brown—I shall end this letter. Best wishes from Phi Kappa.

CHUCK QUANTOCK