

the display up and in good working condition, much to the surprise of several of the more skeptical Brothers.

The block was truly impressive. It took up practically the whole front of the house and extended all the way up to the third floor, as can be seen from the photograph. Under regular lighting the block performed two stunts, then the spot lights went out and two ultraviolet lights came on and two more stunts appeared in ultraviolet. All went well until about 6 P.M. and then "THE RAINS CAME"!

Phi Kappa's Block "I" display.

Unfortunately the flip cards began to absorb water and the more they absorbed the heavier they got until at last several of the dowel rods gave way and Alpha Chi Rho was out of competition.

Not to be stopped by a little rain (about one inch) the Alpha Chis have already started planning a bigger and better Block "I" for next year. This time it will be so constructed that it can withstand a hurricane!

The football team had as bad luck as we did, losing to Purdue in a tough game!

The Pledges win the Pajama Race.

The Phi Kappa Pledges proved themselves the fastest around by winning first place in the Armory Street Pajama Race. The Crows proved victorious by beating Theta Chi after eliminating all others
