

♣ SPRING HAS ARRIVED here at the University of Illinois and everyone is trying to find time for studying in between the wide array of Spring events.

The Crows here have been moving with all kinds of "Hurry and Scurry" for the past few weeks. The events during this time have included our "Cave Man Drag" which was a real success, St. Pat's Ball, Plow Boy Prom, the I. F. Ball with Ralph Marterie's dance band and the annual Greek-Week which included exchange dinners, banquets, workshops and chariot races. Also during Greek-Week the Crow combo represented all Fraternities at the "Red Hot and Greek" jam session which was held at the Student Union. Our combo took first place in the annual all Fraternity jazz competition earlier last month.

At the present time we're hard at work preparing our music for Sachem Sing which is a very popular singing contest held for Fraternities in the Spring. After most every meal and during our 10:30-11:00 break our able director George
