

Phi Kappa

Illinois

♣ THE "CROWS" here at the University of Illinois have really been swinging this fall. Through formal and informal rush we have pledged twenty-four good men who have coordinated themselves into a very fine pledge class. They've had five or six exchanges with some of the top sororities on campus. On October 11, 1958 they were honored at our annual pledge dance which turned out to be a real "gassy" event. Our theme was "House