

PHI KAPPA

University of Illinois

⌘ THE Postulants of Phi Kappa must now remain on the alert for the ten newly initiated Brothers of the Chapter. Jim Bail, Oak Lawn; Ed Borowy, Zion; Ted Dost, Chicago; Vic Enchelmayer, Wilmette; Rich Figura, Deerfield; Bob Jamieson, Maywood; Mike Jones, Pekin; Phil O'Bryan, Tuscola; Rich Piper, East Alton, and Jack Welsch, Hickory Hills, have all become men for the pledges to be on a state of alert. It also seems that Brother Dost no sooner received his pin than he gave it to Miss Linda Denicolo of Chicago. Another poor guy bites the dust! Linda did pretty well for herself, though.

Speaking of other people biting the dust, our condolences go out to both Brothers Joe Hayek and Glen Johnson who are currently reading their last Garnet & White with bachelor status. They are both going to enter the state of wedded bliss (!) on June 24, 1967, Joe to Miss Eleanore Schreiner, and Glenn to Miss Louise Pfeiffer. Alas, I knew them well. Brothers Hayek and Johnson, as well as Brother Dennis Frings, are also spending their last months as members of the Undergraduate Chapter. Joe will receive a degree in electrical engineering; Glenn, in physics; and Dennis, in advertising. Go out and give 'em heck, guys.

The Crow basketball season ended the other night with a loss to FarmHouse, thus giving us a record of one win and five losses, though the
