

September 1952

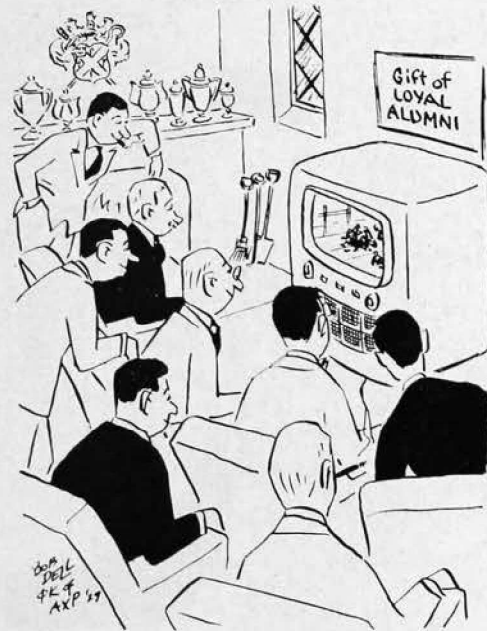

"We eased up on football players and concentrated on pledging musicians."

March 1953

"The men who make the A's but seldom engage in campus activities outside the library make the most money."

December 1952

June 1953

