

September 1954

"If I could be sure of winning that 'AXP Man of the Year' award—I'd have you send in a check for all my past dues."

March 1955

"Now, J.B.—Just because your nephew didn't choose your Fraternity is no reason to leave your entire fortune to the AXP Educational Foundation."

December 1954

"Oh, don't look so tragic—they probably won't expect you to remember the grip."

June 1955

"... 'course, you realize if I get a job—bang goes that little old income tax deduction!"
