

December 1941

"This Christmas, dear—couldn't Santa bring me something without your Fraternity crest on it?"

September 1942

"Trouble with us, Moresby, we're overworked — making college a year 'round grind was bound to tell on us."

February 1942

"He says he spent his allowance on defense bonds — what shall I write him?"

December 1942

"No use me goin' home this Christmas — My Brother's in th' Air Force, Sis is at a WAAC camp, Aunt Sue's in the WAVES, Dad's a plane spotter and Ma works in a defense factory."
