

September-December 1948

"Would you bridge fiends be interested in knowing that school has let out for the Yuletide Holidays?"

September 1949

"Martha — Have I still time to make the Alpha Chi Rho Convention?"

May 1949

"That's odd — you're about the thirtieth fraternity freshman this spring with housemaid's knee."

December 1949

"Before we go, folks — seeing it's so near Christmas — I'd like you to meet some fellows that have been awfully nice to me all year about extending credit."
