

The Crow Song

Words and Music by
F. B. Stover, FG '31

In strict march time

Oh, I'd rather be a Crow than 'most any bird I know, For he leads a mer - ry
Now you sure - ly must have heard of this most un - us - ual bird, He's the mer - ry, mer - ry Life -- a mer - ry life; He can sing and he can play, He flies high both nite and day, For he Crow - the mer - ry Crow; He de - lights in ev - 'ry sin, Drink - ing Scotch and drinking Gin, And be'n has - n't an - y wife - an - y wi - fe, And he leads a mer - ry, mer - ry life.
free from ev - 'ry care and wo - e, He's the mer - ry, mer - ry, mer - ry Crow.

cres
has - n't an - y wife - an - y wi - fe, And he leads a mer - ry, mer - ry life.
free from ev - 'ry care and wo - e, He's the mer - ry, mer - ry, mer - ry Crow.

Chorus: mf 1st 2 choruses

pP last chorus

H all Choruses

Birds of a fea - ther al - ways to - geth - er, The Crow keeps good com - pan - y, And where -
Then PP

ere we go we'll sal - ute the jol - ly crow, For he keeys good com - pany - y.
Repeat chorus twice after 2nd Verse