

PHI KAPPA

University of Illinois

‡ ALL ROADS lead to those twin citadels of sin (Champaign-Urbana) as the Brothers of Phi Kappa made their way back to 311 East Armory Avenue. The Chapter House was exactly as we had left it last June. The only addition was inch-thick dust on everything, so we all pitched in to get the House in top shape. Among the more noticeable improvements were repainting the central dorm and laying new linoleum on the basement stairs.

The most eager and energetic stair sweepers and window washers were the pledges. Instead of the traditional Fall Rush as in previous years, Rush for this semester was held last May and throughout the summer. Sporting shiny, new AXP pledge pins are Wesley Anderson, Oak Park; Donald Broman, Park Ridge; James Graham, Oak Park; Donald Kress, Chicago; Darrell Pepple, Rossville; Robert Rosenow, Galva; Dale Schunk, Chicago; Ronald Singleton, Rossville; Lawrence Stuart, East Saint Louis; and Kent Youch, Glenview.

The Brothers were surprised to find that the city of Champaign, in its benevolence, had finally put bulbs in the street lights. And believe it or not, they even put globes over the bulbs; not the traditional white spheres but what looks like fat flower pots!

It seemed strange to walk along the Quad and find that there was actually NO construction in sight anywhere. The University has torn up and rebuilt the bike lanes in front of the Library and Gregory Hall for what must be the third time in two years. On a more constructive note (no pun intended), new buildings opening this fall for the first time are the new College of Commerce Building, the College of Education Building, the seventh addition to the Library, the addition to the Administration Building, and the "skyscraper" Illinois Street Residence Halls.

Last April 20, Chapter elections were held. The job of guiding the Chapter this year will fall to Brothers Robert Moreen, president; Lee Johnson, vice-president; Charles Hulick, ritual officer; Donald Krehl, chaplain; Joseph Hayek, secretary; Roger Patelski, treasurer; Donald Small, sergeant-at-arms; Roger Puta, chapter correspondent; John Elgin, internal coordinator; Michael Porter, rush chairman; Randall Georgios, scholarship chairman; and Glenn Johnson, historian.

In spring, a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of giving away his fraternity pin. Brother Glenn Johnson couldn't even wait a week after he was
