

"lack of communication" between Brother Hulick and Brother Lee Johnson, our former Social Chairman. To keep the record straight, Brother Johnson resigned his position when he pinned Miss Harolyn Treadwell of Illinois State University, Normal. Brother Mike Porter is our new Social Chairman.

Speaking of socialism, the Illinois Crows have been quite busy on campus. Brothers Lee Johnson and John McQuown had the unique idea of sponsoring an Alpha Chi Rho Homecoming Dance, because all the tickets to the regular Homecoming dance were sold out before we could get any. The Pledge class felt very bad about this since they had taken turns standing in line all night in front of the Illini Union for the tickets. Nonetheless, the Ted Holmes Orchestra of Bloomington was hired and the Illini Union Ballroom was acquired for the dance. The Crows were seen all over campus soliciting ticket sales from both Greek and Independent houses. Brother Dennis Frings brightened up the Georgian decor of the ballroom with his "crow" silhouettes and hugh Homecoming badges. A good time was had by all despite the drubbing we received from Ohio State that afternoon. Among other activities, we've had exchanges with Sigma Sigma Sigma, Delta Zeta, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Alpha Xi Delta.

Postulant Fred Moloznik thought he had found a way to cheat the washing machine by only paying a dime instead of 20 cents. When Brother Rog Patelski, our House Treasurer, heard about this incredulous tale, he decided to investigate. The day before, a new dryer had been installed, and the positions of the washer and dryer were switched. You guessed it; Fred put his clothes, detergent, and liquid bleach in the dryer. Maybe you were trying to "dry clean" your clothes, Fred!

Brother Chuck Hulick was major chairman of Greek Week this year. Chuck was instrumental in having Greek Week changed from the spring to fall. Brother Joe Hayek and his pinmate Miss Eleanor Schreiner were co-chairmen of the Open House Committee. Besides Open Houses, Greek Week consisted of Illiolympics, the Sweat-shirt Dance, College Bowl, Outstanding Greek, and the Greek Week Banquet. Albert Jenner, president of the Illinois Bar Association, and Phi Kappa alumnus, spoke on the Warren Commission, of which he was a member, and its investigation of President Kennedy's death.

Among the Alpha Chi's "moving out on campus": Brothers Joe Hayek and Don Krehl were initiated into Star and Scroll, the sophomore activity honorary for fraternity men; Postulant Fred Moloznik was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Junior Interfraternity Council; Brother John
