

(just call him Robbie) Kerr McQuown. John already has an Exoteric Manual and a copy of the pledge rules to read to Robbie. Pledge class of 1983—take note!

Well, the night is gradually drawing to a close, and I am slowly running out of news. One last thought, and if anyone has a solution to this problem, please write this party. Brother Bill Dyer has broken up and made up with his girl friend so many times in the last six months that he's lost count. Please, Dear Abby readers everywhere, Bill would greatly appreciate a solution. So would all the other Crows!

The time has come to bid "Auf Wiedersehen" to our fellow Chapters, so until next writing, good luck in the coming school year.
