University of Illinois

☞ Summer vacation is over, and we here at Illinois are looking forward to another successful year. On tap in the first few weeks of the semester is the initiation of five of our Postulants: Russ Proch, Ron Balasz, Joe Campanella, Jim Hayes, and Tony Eckert. We welcome these men into our Brotherhood.

Our delegates to the National Convention thoroughly enjoyed themselves, especially the evening they spent with honorary Little Sister Marilyn Apollo.

“New Student Week” was full of beer blasts and mixers, and we are planning our best social calendar yet. The annual Pledge dance will be November 5, and plans are being made for a Winter Formal and for our Caveman Drag.

October 9 is Dad’s Day, and we are going all out to make the weekend a rousing success. The Illinois-Ohio State football game was played on Saturday afternoon, and the night-time activities included the Varsity Men’s
