University of Illinois

☞ Greetings again from the Phi Kappa Crows at Illinois. Fall finds the House settling back into the mode of academic life after an all too short summer. Returning to school, we found the House under repair once again — this time the washrooms and kitchen were rebuilt. Now the House is really in excellent condition, thanks to hard work by many concerned people.

The Illinois Crows have become very active socially again this year, with a big assist from Social Chairman Dave Riley. Exchanges have been planned with several top-flight sororities on campus, and we built a homecoming deck in cooperation with Sigma Kappa sorority. We won second place with our "Computer Date Match" Deck, a take off on a computer dating service run this semester by the Student's Activity Council. Considering our competition, we were very happy to win second place. This result could not have been achieved without a lot of effort's being put out by several people.

Athletically, we are still dominating Orange Division athletics. A surprisingly tough Crow football team fought its way to the semi-finals, before a heart-breaking loss in sudden-death ended the season abruptly. Our soccer and volleyball teams finished strong seconds, and our handball team won it all. Congratulations to our athletes for their effort and participation!

Homecoming was a big success here this year, with a large alum turnout. After the game, we had a steak dinner with the Junior and
