

PHI KAPPA

University of Illinois

☞ Greetings from the wild west. Phi Kappa hopes all had as enjoyable a summer as all of us here did. The annual summer picnic and summer party were definitely the highlights of all of our summers. Starting our school year a little earlier than most of our fellow Chapters, we were in full swing by late August, beginning the year with six kegs and a little movie viewing.

We are proud to introduce our new fall Pledge class. They are Roy Atwood, Mike Cox, John Cross, John Karels, Greg Kuhn, Vince Lambrechts, Mark Leung, Joe Loitz, George Lynch, Dan Metz, Rob Rudow, Mike Sigrist, Bob Vought, and Ed Weber. This year at Illinois things took a new twist with the addition of a fall formal rush. We were very lucky to add four Pledges for next semester.

The new semester and a long awaited grade-point brought two new Brothers into the membership. They are Brothers John Simpson and John Ott.

Last but far from least in our additions to the House are our new cooks, all of whom are Greek and speak no English. Pollock, our
