University of Illinois

p Greetings from a cold and buried Midwest. I hope our Brothers elsewhere are not as cold as we are here. We returned to school to be welcomed by sub-zero temperatures and the resulting headaches. We just hope things move a little faster during the remainder of the semester.

Farewell to the year 1976, and what a year it was. Our fall semester was filled with much activity. On the social side, the Crow House was the place to be. Among the numerous activities were a dinner exchange, a pumpkin-carving party, a cold and inebriated hay ride, and a very successful Homecoming in which we placed third in the deck competition, thanks to the help of Expansion Director Pat Brown during its construction. Not to be forgotten was our annual Pledge Dance which fulfilled our wildest fantasies. Although our Fighting Illini did not fare too well in the ratings, the Crow enthusiasm in the Block "I" could not be beaten, thanks to the help of a little Southern Comfort and the company of a few Little Sisters.

However, our social life is only a small part of the life here at Phi Kappa. We undertook a House improvement project of plastering
