

PHI KAPPA

University of Illinois

ϕ It's great to be back at the Crow House with 50 Brothers and Pledges after a long summer and the annual summer party held this year at Jeff Klein's in Pana, IL. Exciting things are happening at Phi Kappa this semester with the help of our Pledge Class of '83, the largest on campus. They participated in a pajama race with Chi Omega, where pajamas are exchanged instead of a baton. A third place finish out of 26 teams was remarkable, considering we were better at taking the pajamas off the Chi Omegas than putting them on and running.

Our 1st Annual Blood Drive for Champaign County Blood Bank went off well, as the Crows collected over 40 pints of blood to benefit the community. Following at the heels of the Blood Drive was our All Campus
