Phi Kappa

ϕ The Phi Kappa Crows showed the University of Illinois that we were more than mere “socialites” last year. In a recent all-campus gathering of U of I Greeks, our Chapter received the University of Illinois Dad’s Association “Most Improved Fraternity Grade Point Average” award. Our chapter was able to boost an already respectable house GPA by more than three-tenths of a point.

But, Brothers, one of the nicest things about this accomplishment is that we didn’t have to sacrifice
