

six hours we were ready for home...we thought. Realizing we had not yet done any sightseeing, we set out for downtown Philadelphia with cameras in hand. Two hours and 30 pictures later, it was time to leave for home.

Home Monday

We arrived in Champaign at 6 a.m. Monday morning. However, Monday morning classes seemed to be an anticlimactic way to end this exciting trip. This problem was easily solved by sleeping through our classes.

All in all, the trip was excellent. Meeting and talking with Brothers from other Chapters and exchanging ideas and stories really motivated us about Alpha Chi Rho.

Thanks for the good times and see you at Convention '81! ♫
