

Second place finishes were gained by the Phi Kappa volleyball and soccer teams. Gabe Puc, a new pledge and by far the team's most valuable player, played a vital role in the soccer team's success this season. As long as he is around, look for the Crows to tyrannize the campus soccer league.

The first place finish that the Champaign Crows achieved was attained by the bowling team. The proud members included Jeff Simpson, Rick Muff, Jim Camel, Bob Horvath, Mike Butler, and Bob Cook. The Brotherhood, showing their enthusiasm, went in full force to witness the final game determining the championship and later presented the team with a mammoth-sized trophy. Thanks are extended to them for their great support.

Individual honors in university sports at Illinois were attained by several Phi Kappa members, and the entire Brotherhood compliments them on their achievements. Four Brothers are currently teammates on the U of I
