

He explained that our donation would go to help fund their disaster services program. He presented us with a certificate of appreciation and a Choking Prevention poster for our dining area (he noticed we didn't have one—oops!).

This whole experience has been great for our House. Not only was each Brother and Pledge able to feel he'd done an honorable thing, but he could realize we came together as a Brotherhood to accomplish it. ♣