

PHI KAPPA

University of Illinois

ϕ Hello from the Phi Kappa Crows! This semester began with a bang at our annual Basement Party, sponsored by Dungeon, Grotto, The Vault, and Chez Nous. Old little sisters danced the night away in order to wish us a successful semester.

Two days later, we were off to Turkey Run. After a sunny day of canoeing and an evening of ultimate frisbee, we were ready to relax next to a warm campfire under the stars.
