

Stig Lanesskog, Phi Kappa named Undergraduate Man of Year

¶ The Robert B. Stewart Undergraduate Man of the Year award is presented annually to a returning Undergraduate Brother who is deemed to have the most outstanding qualities of Brotherhood, Leadership, Academics and Service. The 1989 recipient of this award is Brother Stig Lanesskog, Phi Kappa '91. He was presented with his plaque and the accompanying $1,000 scholarship at the Feast of the Fraternity. He was presented with this honor by President Lippy and two former recipients of the "R.B. Award", Brothers Scott Carlson, Pi Phi '82 and Dennis Stieren, Phi Kappa '90. Brother Carlson received his award in 1981 and Brother Stieren at the Convention last year.

Brother Lanesskog is a native of Norway and at the University of Illinois has maintained a 4.3 GPA (on a 5.0 scale). He is a Business Administration/

Marketing major, has been on the Dean's list every year in college and is also a member of the academic honoraries of Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma.

He was president of his postulant class and had the class' highest score on the National exoteric exam. He has served the Phi Kappa Chapter as Sergeant-at-Arms, Scholarship Chairman and Assistant Treasurer. In addition to his Chapter work and school work, Brother Lanesskog donates time for the Leukemia Society and the Campaign Children's Home.

Stig represented Phi Kappa as one of his Chapter's delegates at this year's LSI and National Convention. The Fraternity is proud of his accomplishments and knows that he is a great representative of what R.B. wanted as one of his Brothers. ¶

Stig received his plaque and $1000 scholarship at the Feast of the Fraternity.
