

My Recollections of Bob Moreen

Mike Scelsi '62

My last 3 recollections of Bob Moreen:

About 15 years ago, Judy & Bill Terpstra hosted about 6 of us for dinner at the University Club. We had a piano-side table near Bob, and even coaxed him into playing "Poisoning Pigeons in the Park" [See the Music, Songs & Lyrics section of Illinicrows.com for this memorable ditty.]

About 10 years prior to that, Nancy & Larry Johnson went with Pam & I to a cabaret by Lincoln Park where Bob and his songstress partner were playing a lengthy gig.

About 10 years before that, our AXP Annual meeting was in Chicago, and many of us went from The Feast of the Fraternity to a piano bar next to the Drake Hotel and spent the rest of the night listening to and singing along with our Brother Bob.

My first recollection of Bob:

We were rehearsing for Stunt Show at the UI. Bob Moreen said, "Scelsi you can't sing worth a shit, just mouth the words!"
